

Nude calendar boost for kids' cancer charity

Staff and management of one of Scotland's top hotels who bared all for charity have raised more than £1,000 for Tayside Children with Cancer and Leukaemia (TCCL).

General Manager Jody Marshall and Deputy Manager Gail Schofield of Ballathie House Hotel at Kinclaven, near Perth, are pictured with Gaye Blair (centre) of TCCL which provides financial support for parents of child cancer sufferers in Tayside, Angus and North East Fife.

Ballathie's owner John Milligan was one of those who posed naked for a 2014 calendar sold to raise funds for the charity.

TCCL, which works closely with Ninewells Hospital in Dundee, also organises days out for the children and their families.

Ballathie, located on a working farm on the banks of the River Tay, was voted Best Independent Hotel in the 2014-15 Catering in Scotland Excellence Awards.

ENDS